Scholarship Criteria

A scholarship will be awarded to an Eighth grade student and a Twelfth grade student, graduating in May/June 2016, from a Catholic, public, or private school, and who will be attending a Catholic High School or any College/University in September 2016.

The amount and number of scholarships awarded will be determined by the Education Committee based on the number of eligible applications received by the due date. This is a competitive process.

The student applying for this scholarship must be a parishioner of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament-Our Lady of the Divine Shepherd in Trenton, NJ.

The following must be submitted on or before the due date:

- A completed application form
- A copy of your most recent report card
- A completed questionnaire form
- An essay based on the topic/question(s) given
- Letters of recommendation from one of your current teachers sealed in an enclosed envelope.

Submit your application, report card, questionnaire form, essay and recommendation letter on or before Friday, May 27, 2016, to the Parish Office, Attn: Education Committee. No application will be accepted after this date. Applications submitted to Parish Office must be submitted by 4:30p.m. May, 27, 2016.
